24 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by the parties that:

25 1. On June 29, 2005, this Court entered in the above- captioned matter a judgment in favor
26 of plaintiffs in part in favor of defendants in part.
27

2. Plaintiffs believe that they are entitled to attorneys' fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(5). Rule 54-6 requires that the parties meet and confer for the purpose of resolving all the disputed relating to attorneys' fees before filing the fees motion. On July 8, 2005, the parties entered into a motion to enlarge the time to file a motion for attorneys' fees to on or before October 31, 2005. This entered an order to this effect on the same day. Since the entry of this order, the parties have not met and confer discussions but additional time is being requested to accommodate counsels' respective schedules.

3. Accordingly, the parties seek an order of this Court enlarging the time for plaintiffs to file their application for attorneys' fees to on or before January 15, 2006.
